

“Management in the Big Data & IoT Era”

APNOMS (Asia Pacific Network Operations and Management Symposium) has been a premier conference on network operations and management in the Asia Pacific region. APNOMS 2012 is sponsored by the KICS Committee on Korean Network Operations and Management (KNOM), IEICE Technical Committee on Information Communication Management (ICM) and technically co-sponsored by IEEE ComSoc. APNOMS meets every year, typically during September and boasts a rich history of successes. It includes a full three-day program of keynotes, tutorials, technical sessions, innovation sessions, panel discussions, poster sessions, and exhibits that focus on managing networks that span the computing and telecommunications areas. APNOMS 2012 will be held in Seoul, Korea. We are cordially inviting you to submit papers for technical session, poster session, innovation session, and special session. Also, we invite you to submit tutorial proposal on recently advanced topics.

We are looking forward to seeing you in Seoul.
